About The George Hotel

The traditional George Hotel stands in the very centre of the bustling market town of Penrith on the edge of the Lake District and the North Pennines.

Enter through the George Hotel's revolving doors and experience quality and tradition to remind you of bygone days. The nostalgic wood paneling and old local wall prints combine to create a warm and welcoming atmosphere, where many generations of loyal visitors have returned time after time.

Free parking is available and free high-speed fibre optic wi-fi can be accessed throughout the property.

Meals can be enjoyed in the intimate, candlelit 1 AA Rosette Devonshire restaurant which features a beautiful ornate ceiling and an open fire.

An all day bar is also available for guests to use.

Make this lovely hotel your own homely base when visiting the Lake District and the North Pennines.

Business Conference & Meetings

Few hotels can offer the unique position of The George Hotel, where the old world charm of this 300 year old Grade II listed building is complemented by first class modern accommodation and conference facilities. One of the hotels best features is its location, in the heart of the traditional market town of Penrith. We pride ourselves on our commitment to service, quality of local produce and comfortable, well appointed surroundings, ideal for your corporate event.

Work & Play

Whatever the event – be it a corporate entertainment day, team building or just a break from the routine of a conference, we can help you organise any manner of activities – including leadership and personal development courses.

Outdoor activities can include a variety of challenging pursuits – from ghyll scrambling, abseiling, canoeing, kayaking and motorised activities – to something more relaxing such as falconry or an Ullswater lake cruise.
